Chief Pecos Ekpo has not lost his groove! I bet!!!!

The one and only Pecos Ekpo is still happening!!! Just when it appeared that Pecos Ekpo had left the music industry, someone found him in the oil region of Nigeria! It was not easy to associate him with the high level professional music he was into, powerful vocalist) for many years. Now High Chief, Pecos Ekpo is the General Secretary of the Music Elders Forum (MEF). Music Elders Forum is the premier entity of Nigeria's Old School musicians—those who played music in the 70s. If you hear the name Pecos, you should remember the Hygrades. Not only the Hygrades but also other bands of which he was member. Pecos was a powerful vocalist with an unmistakable stage presence. Just mention his name in Enugu. The 70s people will rise!

Barry ‘Starrrrrr’ Uba has remained a major source of inspiration to many musicians in Nigeria. He travels to Nigeria often. He supports the musicians with music accessories, strings, etc. Musicians who shared the stage with Barry during his days in Nigeria have continued to pray prayers of blessings upon Barry. He is a good example to follow, according to those musicians.

Renny Pearl!!!! AKTION Funk

Renny Pearl is one name you cannot forget in a hurry! If you want to forget, I can help you: Do you remember the song, “Tell Me Baby”? The band that played that song was AKTION Funk Ensemble. Now, you have remembered! Renny Pearl was a member of that band. In fact, when you say AKTION Funk, the first person you want to remember is Renny Pearl. Renny was extremely popular in the 70s. Many people attended the Sunday Jump just to see Renny on stage. Boys are becoming old men. Renny is becoming too!

Save Our Daughter from Breast Cancer!

Nneka Molokwu, one of the smartest, kindest, funniest people I know received devastating news that no 30-year old ever imagines: she's been diagnosed with HR+, HER2- breast cancer. After making a few jokes, her go-to coping strategy, she began a myriad of doctors' appointments and consultations. It quickly became clear to her (and her entire support system) that this is going to be a long road, with her treatment plan requiring chemo, surgeries, and radiation. As we help Nneka navigate this road, we are hoping to support her in any way we can.

Short of being able to erase her diagnosis, we are aiming to make all of life's responsibilities as manageable as possible to help her maintain her positivity and humor through this grueling process.

We are hoping to raise enough money to help her pay for medical bills that her insurance doesn't cover, supplement her monthly expenses when she inevitably has to take time off work, and allow her to pay for things to make this road a little less bumpy! Please consider donating to help our girl!

Ambassador Ozo Nwobu

Ambassador Ozo Nwobu is a career diplomat. He has spent his time representing Nigeria at different levels in different situations, all his career life. During the 1970s when men were still boys, Ozo Nwobu was all about music. His life revolved around music. Music revolved around his life. He was never absent from the industry. He is a compendium of happenings, persons, times, places, events, and factors of the vibrant music environment he was part of. He is currently a member of the Music Elders Forum (MEF) where those who were in the music industry in the 70s are now serving as veterans, elder statesmen, and contributing their quota to make the industry better for those coming behind. Ambassador Ozo Nwobu is holding the lever of the National Protocol and Logistics for MEF. He is currently based in Nigeria and at the beck and call of music elders. He continues to devote his time and resources to ensure smooth operation of the NGO, Music Elders Forum, Nigeria.

You probably thought that Mike Okri, the maker of “Time Na Money” and “Omoge” has switched careers. No Way!!! Once a musician, always a musician. Mike Okri is currently resides in the State of California in the United State of America. He enters Nigeria often so often to honor gigs ordered by his ever-increasing clients. If you know, you know! Everyone remembers when Radio Rivers 2 FM Stereo used ‘Time Na Money’ to fill all their gaps to make sure there was no dead air. Besides, that material was (and still is) loved by all those who heard it back them. Keep the flag flying, Mike Okri!!!!!!!!!!

Willie Nwokoye Was Hanging Out with Musicians of the 70s on Monday, January 27, 2025

Willie Nwokoye was the engine house that facilitated the (so far) only music event that brought musicians of the 1970s together in Awka, Anambra State of Nigeria.

Dateline: 2017. Anambra State Broadcasting Station. Awka. Nigeria.

Governor Willie Obiano wanted that show because he was also a musician. Willie Nwokoye executed the program. The musicians of the 70s gathered in Awka, Anambra State and were taken to the ABC radio station. The musicians fielded questions and had a blast in the station with Willie Nwokoye performing his role even more than Squealer and Napoleon combined did in Animal Farm. The musicians had a good concert. They had good refreshment. They made history. That show went down in history for both those who attended that ABC show and those who did not. Willie Nwokoye is about to unleash that power one more time. Nobody knows exactly where!!!

Surprise Graduation Party

On Saturday, January 25, 2025, the children of Dr. Cheryldene Cook organized a surprise graduation party for their mother. The event was well-attended. Though it was a modest outing, dignitaries from all walks of life graced the occasion. Friends, family, and close contacts had a great time and seized the opportunity to toast the celebrant.

According to Dr. Cook's children, their mother completed her doctorate degree program during COVID. They did not have any opportunity to honor her in the right way. They, therefore, made arrangements to bring her friends and contacts together in an intimate setting where individuals had the opportunity to talk about the personality, Dr. Cheryldene Cook. Those in attendance testified that the organizers were meticulous. The guests were satisfied. The celebrant settled in after the initial shock and awe, and she truly enjoyed the moment. She thought she was going to attend someone else's event. Alas!!!!!!!!!!!!

Dr. Cheryldene Cook

Dr. Cheryldene Cook is a Doctor of Education. She has extensive experience and has become a powerhouse of knowledge in both the Education and other areas in Humanities. While this is not an effort in showing her curriculum vitae, we must mention that Dr. Cook is a member of the Board of Trustees at the International Institute for African Scholars. She is faculty at Emmanuel University and is in charge of the G.E.D. Program at that university. She has activities on the continent of Africa. Her meetings in Abuja, Nigeria had a far-reaching effect. While on the Board of Trustees of the International Institute for African Scholars, she is also on the Board of African Rights in New York, and several other entities of importance.

While we agree that no human knows everything, we dare say when you have questions on general issues, you will do well to contact Dr. Cheryldene Cook.

Security Awareness In And Around International Airport Lagos

—By Egoamaka Christy Adetola

This is wake up call to the slogan "Security is everybody's business", particularly those of us doing international travels. You can no longer leave this aspect to security operatives anymore in and around our airports.

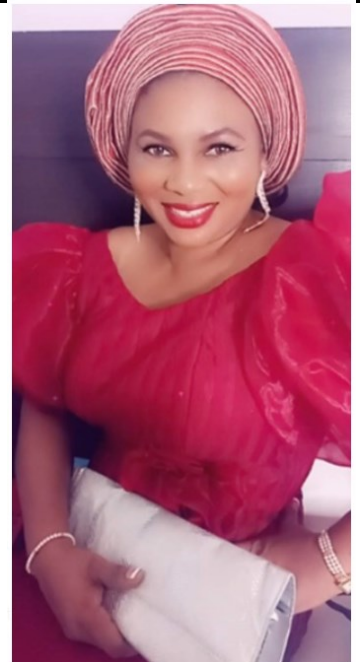

Security awareness is very crucial in and around international airports, including Murtala Muhammed International Airport (MMIA) in Lagos, Nigeria. Here are some security tips and awareness measures:

#Pre-Travel

1. Verify travel documents: Ensure your passport, visa, and other documents are valid and genuine.
2. Check airline security requirements: Familiarize yourself with airline-specific security regulations.
3. Stay informed: Register with your country's travel advisory department for updates on safety and security.

#Airport Arrival

1. Be aware of surroundings: Keep an eye on your belongings and avoid distractions.
2. Use authorized airport taxis: Only use licensed taxis or ride-sharing services.
3. Keep valuables secure: Use airport lockers or secure your luggage.

#Security Checkpoints

1. Follow security protocols: Remove electronics, liquids, and belts as required.
2. Be prepared for screening: Wear easy-to-remove shoes and avoid wearing anything with metal.
3. Cooperate with security personnel: Answer questions and follow instructions.

#In-Transit

1. Keep your belongings close: Monitor your luggage and personal items.
2. Be cautious of strangers: Avoid accepting items or assistance from unknown individuals.
3. Follow airport signs and announcements: Stay informed about flight updates and security alerts.

#Departure

1. Arrive early: Allow time for security checks and potential delays.
2. Stay alert: Remain vigilant and report suspicious activity.
3. Follow airport rules: Adhere to airport regulations and guidelines.

It baffles me to see passengers arriving and after all checks still with their arrival bag tags on their luggage, most especially those boarding transport back home. Some are just ignorant of the dangers (armed robbers, kidnappers, touts and the likes) involved with leaving such out in the open, while others simply want to give a narrative that they are successful and rich to buy travel tickets.

By being aware of these security measures and taking necessary precautions, you can minimize risks and ensure a safe and enjoyable travel experience in and around Lagos International Airport.

Emmanuel University Times

Transition

The end of 2025 witnessed a harvest of sorrows within Emmanuel University family. The Chancellor of Emmanuel University was bereaved of his dear wife latter part of 2025. The final respects were paid during the last week of 2025. The Deputy Vice President (Academic Affairs) made the trip and represented the entire university community at the final respects. The final respects took place at a time of the year when people all over the world are traveling to be with their families. Consequently, air travels took its toll on travelers some of whom did not receive their luggage days after they reached their destinations. December travel experiences affected guest levels. Messages were received especially from those in the university's post-doctorate program. Details of that trip will be received from the Deputy Vice President (Academic) and made available to the university community.

Center for Academic Research and Educational Sustainability (C.A.R.E.S.)

Emmanuel University has this knack to combine research with its 'functional educational' paradigm. Ordinarily, one would expect that the emphasis the university places on practical skills would remove its attention from research. Unfortunately, the caliber of the university's faculty warrants full-blast engagement with social science research. To buttress the extend to which the university combines research with practical or functional education, the institution has found a researcher in Africa who is engaged in the processing of Cassava into Vitamin A products. The university decided to offer the researcher a sabbatical leave that he will spend in the United States to work with the appropriate laboratories for the purposes of publishing the research and exploring other Cassava and Vitamin A outcomes.

Faculty Training Program

The Emmanuel University School of Education is offering (again) the prestigious Online Faculty Training in which individuals with doctorate degree holders pursue and earn a post-doctoral certificate in Education while those with master's degrees pursue and earn post-master's certificate in Education. It is an intensive one-year program under the university's Faculty Training Program (FTP). Typical teaching training programs offer one term of teaching practice. At Emmanuel University School of Education, the Faculty Training Program deploys OFT enrollees to bachelor degree program courserooms where they will spend the whole one year practicing what they are learning in the OFT courseroom. Thus, enrollees are 'students' in the OFT courseroom and 'faculty' in the Practicing School doing their year-long teaching practice. This design does not exist anywhere else in the world.

Prince Emeka Reggie Egwunwoke

Prince Emeka McReggie Egwunwoke is a member of the Music Elders Forum in Nigeria. He paid his dues in the music industry back in the 1970s.

Once a musician, always a musician! The prince is still very much in circulation in the music arena, especially in the midst of his colleagues with whom he lived his musician life in the 70s. Prince Emeka McReggie Egwunwoke is currently based in Nigeria taking care of business, especially in this season.

Prince Emeka McReggie Egwunwoke is fully surrounded by his counterparts all of whom have reduced their music-related physical exertion.

African Scholars Health Organization

A group of academic brains, scholars of repute, writers, authors, specialists, consultants, university teachers, etc. got together and formed an organization to extend the reach of global health benefits to the remotest parts of Africa. African Scholars Health Organization (often referred to as African Health Organization) is the result of that endeavor. According to the President of ASHO, Dr. Anastasia Ashi, who also is the Dean of Health Sciences at Emmanuel University, USA, "Some of the 54 countries of Africa are gradually feeling the impact of AHO. It became clear that servicing 54 countries can be an uphill task. However, the journey of a thousand miles starts with just one step."

No music lover then can deny knowing, loving and desiring SWEET BREEZE and its members. Dallas Kings sang his heart out in those days. Let’s pay a visit: “She’s My Choice”. “Palmwine Tapper”. “Igba Aka Bia ILum?” “Miss Patience Without Patience”. He had stints with Life Everlasting and joined his friends to form ESBEE Family where they released another hit song titled “Chicks and Chicken”. Dallas is highly talented, highly educated, highly connected, and highly enlightened. He formed the Music Elders Forum (MEF), a group of Old School Nigerian musicians who played in the 70s.

Behind Every Successful Man, There’s Always A Woman. Meet Queen Ogechi Ahuruonye!!!

We are focusing on the woman in the photo! She is the wife of the immediate past President of the Ngwa National Association USA. She supported her husband every step of the way; from campaigning to winning; from leading to handing over. Here, she accompanied her husband to the inauguration ceremony where the new NNAUSA administration started their reign. She was in the event’s summit that took place in Yonkers, New York, hosted by the new NNAUSA administration under Dr. Ugochukwu Agu. It was a night of reflection on the promising future for NNAUSA. We acknowledge Queen Ogechi Ahuruonye.

Devyne Agulanna is a student at Ole Miss (University of Mississippi) in Oxford, Mississippi. She is one person who reads books as if her life depends on it. Who knows...? Devyne has consistently demonstrated a knack for books. Her mien reveals the saying that “Reading maketh a man; conference, a ready man; and writing, an exact man.” Devyne show that these three things can come naturally to a person. Have you ever seen a person who reads voraciously? If you have not, we will show you one. Devyne comes from a highly disciplined family whose values transcend the visible and entrench principles for living and succeeding. Meet Devyne Agulanna.

LATE MRS.
FELICIA
IFEONU
NWOKOYE

Dear Seniors, friends & colleagues

My beautiful, baby-skinned and soft-hearted mum, Felicia Ifeonu Nwokoje, popularly known as OJ, short for Ojemba, passed on January 9th at 90. OJ was the last of a generation of her maiden Ejianya family in Amawbia.

Her final farewell starts Friday February 28th with a Vigil Mass at 5.00pm at the open Ibobo Square, Enugu-Umueze, Amawbia.

A Pontifical Requiem for her will be held on Saturday March 1st at St. Joseph Catholic Church, Maryland Estate, Amawbia.

Time of Mass is 10.00am.

After the Mass and interment, celebration of her life and condolences follow at Community Primary School field, easily notable on the Amawbia by-pass.

May God's mercy abide with you as you join the family to give her this final honour.

WILLIE NWOKOYE

(Ibobo Amawbia)
